ARTIST-DESIGNED DONATIONS BOX: TOBY ZIEGLER

Chisenhale Gallery is a registered charity and we rely on donations from trusts, foundations and individuals to realise our programme of exhibitions, events and education projects. All donations directly support the commissioning of new work.

Artist Toby Ziegler has been commissioned to make the first in a new annual series of artist-designed donations boxes for the gallery. A new commission by a former Chisenhale Gallery exhibiting artist will be launched each October. To find out more about Toby Ziegler's work and his exhibition at the gallery in 2005 please visit our online archive.
